Î Â The Company:Â â Whether or not you have time to make the trip to an Albany station you may be interested in the possibility of taking advantage of any of the new Albany area radio stations. We hope you find these stations worthy of your time and consideration.â The Albany area is fairly large and is home to numerous new radio stations. Whether youâre a local from Albany or just passing through, be sure to familiarize yourself with the broadcast spectrum â all new stations in Albany operate on the designated broadcast frequency as detailed on station operator manuals. Hopefully we'll see you there! This is Matt Luke - The host and producer of The Morning Show for WVXU-FM. Generally, the minimum duration for a broadcast license is three years. However, most stations have exceptions to this time period, such as the months of June, July and August in some markets.
