While I could probably get used to having 4 arms and 4 legs and an adorable little boy, I'd love to have more time. And the thought of being pregnant with my future son scares the crap out of me. I mean, I love my son, but the thought of becoming a parent scares the crap out of me. And, I don't know why, but I think I want to keep my little guy longer than I am. I mean, he is adorable and I love him so much, but I can't help to wonder what it would be like to have a little one of my own... which makes me wonder what my child would look like... and oh, the horror of seeing myself as an old woman with a kid... In other news, yes, I am indeed grateful for the fact that I have a job right now. I wouldn't say I'm "happy" about it, but I'm not drowning in my life. I have the ability to feed myself right now. It is a relief, especially since I'm starving. But I look at the boxes I ordered from Mario Badescu and I just want to c6a93da74d
